Give Kids The World & Story Land Present
Coasting For Kids Event

February 2019, Glen, N.H. – Story Land is partnering with Give Kids The World Village – a Central Florida-based nonprofit that fulfills wishes for critically ill children and their families – to stage a Coasting for Kids event on Saturday, July 13th.

With Coasting for Kids, Story Land is uniting with Give Kids The World to support these brave children and their families. On Story Land's Coasting for Kids day, participants who raise – or donate – at least $100 in support of Give Kids The World Village will coast into the park before the general public for their own exclusive ride time on Roar-O-Saurus and Polar Coaster, the park's two beloved roller coasters. In addition to early entrance, a Coasting for Kids participant will receive admission for the day and a Coasting for Kids commemorative T-shirt.

All money raised by participants will help Give Kids The World provide free, weeklong dream vacations to critically ill children and their families. The Village is an 84-acre, nonprofit resort located near Orlando's world-famous theme parks. Since its founding more than 30 years ago, it has hosted more than 165,000 critically ill children and their families.

Those interested in being a part of Coasting for Kids at Story Land can sign up at www.storylandnh.com/coasting.
