Story Land Theme Park, Living Shores Aquarium & Water Country Water Park Now Hiring for Summer 2025 Season

The New Hampshire Destinations for Family Fun are Currently Seeking 600 Team Members

NEW HAMPSHIRE [March 11, 2025] – Summer 2025 is just around the corner and several New Hampshire area destinations are currently hiring seasonal and full-time team members to help make 2025 one of the best summers yet. Story Land Theme Park and the park’s neighboring Living Shores Aquarium in Glen, are currently seeking nearly 300 seasonal team members. While Water Country Water Park in Portsmouth is hiring more than 300 employees.

All three properties offer unique perks and are hiring across a variety of positions. Details include:

- Story Land is seeking more than 280 employees to help make the summer 2025 season magical. Positions are available within all departments including ride operators, sales associates, cooks, area cleaners, characters, EMTs, security, supervisors and more. The park offers pay up to $19 per hour and those as young as 14 are eligible to apply now online.
- Living Shores Aquarium is hiring across all positions including education ambassadors, floor staff, retail associates, janitorial and more. The aquarium is offering rates starting at up to $18 per hour and those ages 14 and up can apply now online.
- Water Country Water Park is currently hiring 300 employees across all positions, including lifeguards, and is currently seeking part-time team members ages 14 and up. With pay rates up to $20 per hour, New England’s Largest Water Park, offers unique Team Members perks like Season Passes to visit the park, free park tickets for family and friends, invitations to employee-only special events, incentive programs and performance awards.

“Story Land is one of the best places to spend your summer season in the Mount Washington Valley,” said Story Land General Manager Chris Kearsing. “We just celebrated our 70th season with our largest capital investment ever, Moo Lagoon, and this year the fun isn’t stopping as we add more days onto our season and offer our guests even more reasons to visit.”

Story Land and Living Shores offer several perks for employees including friends and family tickets, White Mountains Attractions passbook with free admissions to popular local attractions, in-park discounts, flexible schedules and more.

Story Land and Living Shores will host its first job fair of the season on Saturday, March 22 from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the Living Shores Bistro. Water Country Water Park will host its first job fair of the season on Saturday, April 19 from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. at the park. Those interested in attending can apply and interview on the spot while also connecting with current Team Members.
